

STUDENT NAME _____ School Year 2010-11

ADDRESS _____

HOME OR PARENT PHONE _____ E-MAIL _____

MY ADDRESS IS DIFFERENT FROM THE ADDRESS SHOWN ON MY SCHEDULE ___ YES ___ NO

MY HOME PHONE NUMBER IS DIFFERENT FROM THAT SHOWN ON MY SCHEDULE ___ YES ___ NO

STUDENT HANDBOOK STATEMENT: I have received a copy of the Hayesville High School Student Handbook. I understand that I am responsible for reading it and will be held responsible for understanding its contents. I also understand that I am free to ask a teacher or school administrator to explain any part of the contents that I do not understand. Furthermore, I understand that I should take the handbook home and ask my parents to read it. My signature indicates that I have received the handbook and understand my responsibilities toward its content.

STUDENT SIGNATURE _____ DATE _____

INTERNET USE STATEMENT: I have read the Clay County Schools Internet Acceptable Use Policy on page 21 of the Student Handbook. I understand that student use of the Internet at Hayesville High School is only allowed according to the Terms and Conditions of this policy. I further understand that if I violate any of the Terms and Conditions, my future access to the Internet and/or the use of any computer at Hayesville High School can be denied. My signature indicates that I understand this statement.

STUDENT SIGNATURE _____ DATE _____

LOCKER STATEMENT: I understand that a locker will be made available for my use. The locker and lock are the property of Hayesville High School, and school officials have the right to search my locker according to the Clay County Schools Search and Seizure Policy (see page 23 of the Student Handbook). I am responsible for the locker's cleanliness, its contents, and for any damage done to it. Only locked lockers can be considered secure, and I understand that if I tell my locker combination to even one person, it can no longer be considered a secure locker. My signature indicates that I understand this statement.

STUDENT SIGNATURE _____ DATE _____

CHEATING IS NOT ACCEPTABLE AT HAYESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL: Cheating is defined as willfully using another's work as your own and includes copying someone's test, class work or homework, turning in someone's work as your own, allowing someone to copy or turn in your work as his or hers, plagiarism, "cheat sheets," or using electronic devices contrary to teacher instructions. Plagiarism includes, but is not restricted to, copying work directly from books, magazines or from the Internet without proper citation. Cheating may apply to homework, class assignments, term papers, essays, reports, projects, quizzes, tests, examinations, or any work assigned to a student by a teacher. The penalties for cheating are listed on pages 9 and 13 of the Student Handbook. My signature indicates that I understand this statement.

STUDENT SIGNATURE _____ DATE _____

CLAY COUNTY SCHOOLS STUDENT RESTRAINT/SECLUSION/ISOLATION POLICY: I have read the abridged version of the Clay County Schools Student Restraint/Seclusion/Isolation Policy on page 24 of the Student Handbook. However, the full version of the policy and House Bill 1032 can be obtained from the principal's office upon the request of a student or his or her parents. My signature indicates that I understand this statement.

STUDENT SIGNATURE _____ DATE _____